

Dear Sirs and Madams,

We are pleased to announce the 2010 Lausanne International Sports Management Conference: Bridging Research and Practice to be held this November 4-6, 2010 in Switzerland.

We hope to have a good meeting, again, and we have prepared another good lineup of speakers.

See us at: www.worldeventsforum.com/ismc or at our "working" platform: ismconf.ning.com

We shall have a mix of great academia and industry presentations (review our program of 2009) and we are inviting the submission of new papers at our site. In addition, we are sponsoring ten scholarships and one award to help support the participation of young talents in the field.

Please consider joining us this November and online, at all or any of our virtual platforms. We also hope you can share this information with your colleagues and students.

With our thanks and best wishes for continued success,

Nico Stanculescu
